

Dallas Human Resources Management Association, Inc.
DallasHR and The HRSouthwest Conference
Board of Trustees Job Description

Board of Trustees Position Summary:

The Board of Trustees ("BOT") shall be responsible for the overall viability of DHRMA, Inc. [the Corporation] and the oversight of the corporate business affairs of the Dallas Human Resource Management Association, Inc. In conjunction with the volunteer leadership and staff, it shall also be responsible for the long-term strategic planning activities of the Corporation, legal operations accountability and for ensuring a continuity of leadership and direction over time.

The Board of Trustees is comprised of three elected members serving 3-year terms, two appointed HR professionals serving 2-year terms, a strategic advisor, corporate attorney, two Trustees assigned per their position's job description.

Reports to:

DHRMA, Inc.'s constituents (including membership of DallasHR, conference attendees and all other customers of the Corporation)

Responsibilities:

Trustees are responsible for:

- Appointing applicable HR business professionals to serve as Trustees for a 2-year term, by the December Board of Trustees Meeting
- Appointing one of the three elected Trustees to serve as the following year's Chair by the December Board of Trustees Meeting. The role of the Chair is to conduct and/or facilitate meetings.
- Conducting at least an annual assessment of the Executive Director's performance
- Executive Director ("ED") staffing (to include hiring, termination, merit increases, bonus plan design/approval and performance appraisals)
- Serving on the Nominating Committee (unless running for an elected office)
- Complying with all known existing legal, regulatory, and financial reporting requirements as well as Corporate By-laws and established guidelines
- Strategic and long-term planning for the Corporation (approximately 50% of workload)
- Providing continuity of management and leadership to the Corporation
- The overall viability of the Corporation
- The oversight of all property and business affairs of the Corporation
- Ensuring financial solvency of the Corporation
- Approving long-term financial and contractual affairs
- Delegating power to the Executive Director so the business affairs of the Corporation can be effectively managed
- Delegating power to the Executive Committee to oversee the annual management and business affairs of the Corporation

Qualifications

Elected and appointed Trustees may not serve in any other appointed or elected leadership position of the Corporation during their tenure.

Elected Trustees (3)

- At least one trustee must be a past President of DallasHR.
- At least one trustee must be a past Vice President/Conference Director
- The third trustee must qualify as a past President of DallasHR or past Vice President/Conference Director of the conference or have served a minimum of one year in a volunteer leadership position for the chapter and the conference. (Exception: At the discretion of the Nominating Committee, two or more years of prior leadership with another SHRM affiliated Chapter or with SHRM may be considered in lieu of this qualification.)
- Must be member in good standing with DallasHR and SHRM.

Appointed Trustees (2)

- Generally acknowledged as a respected business professional within the DFW business community.
- Possess specific skill sets deemed appropriate for assisting in the management of a large, not-for-profit Corporation.

Appointed Trustees (5)

Includes:

- DallasHR President
- The Vice President/Conference Director
- Strategic Advisor
- DHRMA, Inc. Executive Director
- DHRMA, Inc. Corporate Attorney

These Trustees serve on the Board by virtue of their leadership position. See individual job descriptions for qualifications.

Requirements

Must exercise duty of care by:

- Attending Board of Trustees meetings
- Making informed decisions
- Carrying out duties in a reasonable and responsible manner
- Supporting majority decisions of Board of Trustees
- Leading by example

Must conform to the Bylaws Conflict of Interest:

Leadership must disclose all material facts and relationships and refrain from voting on any matter when there is a potential for conflict of interest. This accountability to the Organization includes:

- Loyalty to any other interest group(s), boards or staffs
- Personal interest or private business of any Trustee