Frisco Networking Event Draws HR Professionals

A week of cold rain encouraged 79 people to venture out and join their HR colleagues at Dave & Buster's Stonebriar. This event was the kick off to a new year of networking in Collin County. Guests enjoyed a warm food bar, game cards for unlimited play, a team building scavenger hunt throughout the facility and the chance to win a $250 office Happy Hour at Dave & Busters. Helping Members Find New Jobs "In August of 2017 I found myself in transition after 7 years in the same position. During that time, I tried to stay very active and one of those activities was increasing my level of involvement with DallasHR. One of the benefits to DallasHR, which I had previously been unaware of, was the Job-Link Group.” Read more.

Marketing and Brand Expert Shares Digital Strategy at Job-Link Meeting Last Week

Support to those seeking new or enhanced positions in HR is a hallmark way that DallasHR makes an impact on the local community. Local digital expert, Craig Fisher, spoke to a packed room about the methods needed in today’s competitive market to make your digital resume relevant. In April, Job-Link welcomes entrepreneur, success coach, and speaker, Donnie Boivin as he shares methods to mentally get over the hurdle to find a new position. Learn More.
