Important Resources for Local HR Practitioners

During this unprecedented time, DallasHR is committed, more than ever, to support our local HR community. Now – June 1, we invite any local human resource practitioner to register for access to our website and resources, traditionally available to our members only. There is nothing traditional about this situation and we hope you find our benefits helpful to weather this difficult time. Access timely COVID-19 webinars and resources presented by our members and your peers. Get answers to your questions reading through hundreds of Q&A's or post one of your own in the online community – HRConnect. And, continue preparing for your HR recertification or find out more about a certain topic with access to five complimentary education sessions from our Online Learning Center.

We're in this together. Apply today and stay safe!

NEW - Crisis Management Webinar Series
