THE HRSOUTHWEST CONFERENCE

Rates on the Rise

Still thinking about attending the HRSouthwest Conference? Attendee rates increase at midnight on April 30. Don't wait to register. Rates won't be this low again.

We're finalizing the education schedule and have a terrific line up of speakers and topics on tap this year. Check out the video from 2018 to see what to expect and join us October 27 – 30, in Fort Worth for the official state of Texas SHRM conference.

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

Education Event Last Week Kicks Off “The Future of Work” Conversations

The gig economy is the largest macro shift in our workforce in the last 100 years and will continue to grow. Using metrics and technology can help create inclusive cultures. And artificial intelligence (AI) is often feared by HR professionals but it can increase productivity, reduce cost, and eliminate costly hiring mistakes. These were the topics discussed at the April Education Event in Dallas last week. Mark your calendar for future topics in 2019.
