COMMUNITY CONNECTION

4,096 Meals Packed in 40 Minutes – Corporate Social Responsibility

Earlier this month 43 dedicated and passionate HR professionals came together to support our 2018 Community Outreach organization, The Wilkinson Center. The Center's Food Pantry is the honored recipient of 4,096 meals which beat the original goal of 3,000 meals in 30 minutes. This packing event was designed to provide our members with a simple, engaging, and cost-effective way for their own companies to support local organizations. View pictures from the evening.

Speaker Shares Path from CHRO to CEO of Frisco Based Company

Dave Pace, current CEO of Jamba Juice and previously President of Carrabba's Italian Grill, gave attendees of the May 23 education event in McKinney stories and ideas on how to get your HR seat in the C-Suite. One key piece of advice he gave attendees was to learn your business from a grassroots perspective. Understand as many areas as possible. When you know the business you're in you can then move your HR position from an administrative role to a business advisor who can be trusted. View pictures from the event.
