Volunteer Committee Applications Now Open

Local HR professionals play a pivotal role in determining and selecting education speakers and topics for both DallasHR and The HRSouthwest Conference. And, this is only one of eleven committees you can join! View a list of committees and apply online before applications close on October 30. Be sure to login to the website to view available options. Remember, if you are already on a committee and wish to continue your support, you must reapply through the portal.

THE HRSOUTHWEST CONFERENCE

On point education sessions prepare you for the months and years ahead; marketplace exhibitors share products and services to best meet your current and future needs, and we might not get you out of the house, but daily activities and afternoon “camera on” social networking will get you talking to more than just your house plants. Join us for three exciting days! Register now for The Virtual HRSouthwest Conference.

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

Chapter Remains Virtual Through Q1, 2021

Adhering to local governmental COVID-19 guidelines, and hearing feedback from many of our members, our Board of Trustees have decided the Chapter continue delivering education and networking events virtually through Q1 2021. Our priority is the safety of our members and guests. Join us to help stop the spread so we can enjoy being together again.
