Volunteer Committee Applications Now Open

Local HR professionals play a pivotal role in determining and selecting education speakers and topics for both DallasHR and The HRSouthwest Conference.

Join us for our Committee Awareness Networking Event, TOMORROW and meet the volunteers who helped organize, select and manage our education and networking events this year. Share your feedback with them for future consideration of education topics or networking locations. Find out how you can be a part of this network of professionals who volunteer their time to help DallasHR Advance the Value of HR. View a list of committees and apply online before applications close on November 11. Remember, if you are already on a committee and wish to continue your support, you must reapply through the portal.
