Headlines

Learn, Network, Grow

Hi, I am Brian Yanus, this year's HRSouthwest Conference Director and Vice President of DallasHR. I am pleased to share the following exciting update about the event.

HRSouthwest Conference participants learn from hundreds of subject matter expert speakers and supply industry products and services. They network and build relationships with other HR practitioners, and their careers grow with practical, educational takeaways for use after the event.

Helping HR professionals Learn, Network, and Grow has been the cornerstone of The HRSouthwest Conference for the past 79 years. And as we prepare to celebrate our 80th Anniversary in October, my "tagline" Learn, Network, Grow will become a permanent fixture and our commitment to all Conference attendees. I look forward to learning, networking, and growing with you at The HRSouthwest Conference. Registration is NOW OPEN for HR practitioners.
